

MAJOR TAYLOR SHOWS HIS HEELS

MARION CASEY WON STAKE AT BUENA VISTA YESTERDAY

Under perfect handling from Seiden, and showing herself a great race mare, John Lowe's Marion Casey won the Salt Lake Selling stakes at seven furlongs yesterday at Buena Vista, defeating a crack field. By reason of her consistent performance at the meeting and having covered seven furlongs in track record time, Marion Casey had been made the favorite and was heavily backed. The only question that was considered against her was the fact that she was running against a much better class than in her former outings and how she would stand up under fire was to be determined.

Seiden held his mount off the early pace, but began gradually to wear the lead down from the far turn on. Entering the stretch third, the favorite responded to Seiden's call and she successfully challenged and passed Lena Lech and Marchmont, finishing by a length. Marchmont made a game effort in the stretch, closing strong under the whip, but was evidently held out under the winner's rush. Lena Lech, fighting for the pace all the way, came home a very close third. Hidden Hand and Executive, the Powell & Parker entry, was the second choice, but Hidden Hand, who was sent in to set the pace, was run out by Lena Lech and backing up interfered with his stable mate to the latter's loss of a little ground.

Preceding the stake event, there came the second bad accident at the meeting. Bill Eaton, the favorite, was when bumped by Del Crusador, after an eighth of a mile had been covered. Rattling up on Bill Eaton, went under the horse as it fell and was knocked out for ten minutes. An examination showed two broken ribs, but, marvellously, no serious injury. Conskin, coming along behind the field, jumped over the horse and boy on the track, and while Hogg kept him mounted up, two such rounds was lost to make up. Bill Eaton was uninjured.

The mile and a half race proved to be a gallop for the favorite, Round and Round, Seiden taking his mount out in front to come home twice lengths to the good. The race for the place was a good one, with Corrigan's Flora Riley placing handsomely from Tuckers of Montebello, who caught the Kiring Coppers in the last sixteenth. After four favorites had won, the talent thought Coppertown was the best of the last race, in which a fine class of sprinters faced the farther at seven furlongs. Silver Stocking, pace by open lengths, got up to first position in the stretch, although Silver Stocking, who was evidently held out by a scant half length, with Silver Stocking lasting to show a length the better of Lomond.

It was Seiden's third straight win and the capable little rider was warmly applauded. The race was run in a blinding dust storm, which was very stiff wind in the stretch. Many who know Coppertown best claim that the animal naturally delicate, was handicapped more than the rest by the weather conditions.

The hanging up of Tugboat's number after the finish of the second race was greeted by one of the most popular demonstrations seen at the meeting. Tugboat's number, which made a sensational close, dropping from the

TAYLOR HOPPER WALKER LAWSON

AS EARLY as his first workout on the Salt Palace track, Major Taylor, the colored cycling wonder, began to show his wonderful jump, a short sprint that has enabled him over the tape ahead of the best riders in the world. The picture above shows Taylor opening up a lead of a dozen lengths on Hopper, Walker and Lawson. While it was not a race it was a real sprint and the tip has been given out that Harry Heagren, manager of the track, is seen at the right of the picture slaying up the "Bullit."

Admitted to have won more money in the bike racing game than any other rider, Taylor is also acknowledged to be the peer of the French style game, his lightning-like sprint coupled with the wisest head in the business, putting him in the front rank.

A little of Taylor's riding history shows him to have won the world's championship in Montreal in 1899. In 1901 he won the American title from Frank Kramer, losing the title to the New York split even in today's doubleheader, the locals winning the first game 5 to 3 and the visitors the second, 9 to 4. Volter made a wonderful catch in the early contest and the features of the second game were the timely hitting of Bemis, Stoval and Daniels. Score:

COBB THE FIRST ONE WHEN HEEL BATES---ADVICE OF COBB

Detroit, July 16.—Ty Cobb is proud of his ability to hit the ball safely with men on bases, and points with pride to the fact that he has driven in more runs than any member of the Detroit team since the club, in speaking of this the other day, the famous batsman said:

"I find it easier to hit the ball with the bases full. The pitcher is worried, the infielders are guessing, and when you do hit the ball the flying baserunners rattle and disconcert the men who are trying to handle it."

"With men on bases, I generally lay for the first ball the pitcher hands over. Life dollars to dimes that if he can lay that first one straight at the pan he'll do it, and I soak quite a few of them. The majority of batsmen will pass up the first ball, no matter if it cuts the platter. But you'll never get this boy overlooking one of that kind. Nine times out of ten I go to the plate prepared to tackle the first ball, if the pitcher lays it over."

"I never take a good, healthy swing at the ball any more. I like to get it, but you can't get anything in the big leagues swinging the willow. The spit ball pitchers would make a dune of you in short order, to say nothing of the boxmen who have mastered a good change of pace. They'll shoot one over that looks like a new one, then feed you a slow one that comes floating up as big as a balloon. But you are set for the one and break your back reaching for the slow ball."

Old Stick Stars.
In the old days the great hitters were Dave Orr, Pete Browning, Dan Brothers and Pop Anson, big fellows who swung onto a ball with the force of a trip-hammer. Bring 'em in one of the big ringers who are the stars of modern baseball would make 'em look like jokers.

"You can't grab a wagon tongue down at the handle, reach back and swing half way around for a curve pitcher. They'd make you look foolish, and you wouldn't have a feed you average at the end of the month to get your name in the percentages."

"The old hitters of the time gave their batting sticks a foot or more from the handle, and instead of swinging, they'd make a dash for it."

Lexington, Ky., July 16.—The application of H. G. Bedwell, the turfman who was ruled off the Lattoria track recently, and who applied for reinstatement to the Kentucky racing commission, was refused by that body late today. Another horseman who was ruled off on the alleged charge of stimulating horses during the race, was also refused. Thomas H. McCreery, who was connected with the Bedwell stable as trainer, was also reinstated.

The commission held that failure of the Lattoria paddock judge to make an examination of the horse Charley Hill before or after death left a doubt whether or not the horse was sound. Lattoria officials acted insufficient to sustain their ruling in the case of Charley Hill.

The horses Bobby Cook, Carondelet, Maggie Miss, Yankee Pooh and Moseley of the Spence stable were also reinstated.

In the case of McCreery it was held that the evidence failed to disclose the administration of a drug to Nadzu by him or by any other man employed by McCreery.

Telegrams were read from James R. Keene, August Belmont, John E. Madden and T. C. McDowell on behalf of Bedwell and McCreery.

LOS ANGELES IS AFTER NAUD JUNCTION SHOWS
Los Angeles, July 16.—By making it illegal to charge admission fees to ring contests, the legislation committee of the city council believes it has found a means of barring prize fights from Los Angeles without conflicting with the state law relative to boxing.

The committee has voted to recommend the passage of an ordinance embodying this anti-prize fight feature at the next meeting of the council Monday.

The passage of the ordinance would prevent the weekly card of entertainment at Naud Junction. At the same time it would not interfere with amateur boxing matches in legitimate athletic clubs.
